Yellow Hat Publishing, a Division of Yellow Hat PR. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 248 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. In 2005 Texas author Edward T. Martin (KING OF TRAVELERS: JESUS LOST YEARS IN INDIA) and Producer Director Paul Davids undertook the filming of the motion picture JESUS IN INDIA across 4000 miles of India and in several other countries. They met with the Pope of Hinduism, the Shankaracharya of Puri, to pose the question whether Hindus believe Jesus came to India. The answer from the spiritual leader of millions of Hindus -- Jesus spent years in India during the so-called lost years, both in Puri and Kashmir, learning from Hindus. From there a deeper mystery unfolds. The story of the making of the film on this theme is a harrowing and wonderful adventure of a small film crew from the U. S. and India. Cinema students have never read about a production like this before, and students of religion will find incredibly provocative information unearthed from the search for the presence of Jesus (or St. Issa) in India. The book also has unique photographs taken by the director during production. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
